Among the features of the day will be a pleasant individual match for a valuable prize at long range. All who admire this sort of pleasure will be gratified by a visit to the Park this afternoon.

JOHN CHAPMAN, a Benwood mill employee, went down to Moundsville yesterday and got himself comfortably fall of whisky. So that when the train which arrives in this city at 11 p. m. arrived in Moundsville, John was in a better condition for going to bed than aboard a train, but he got aboard, and as is usual with drunken men, they had to stand on the platform, and as is also usual with these gentlemen, he couldn't, and as soon as the train started off at full speed he was thrown off, but fortunately fell upon a bar and, and then into the fence corner hard by. The train backed back to the spot and John was picked up and placed in the baggage car until the train arrived in Benwood, when he was taken home. It was thought he is not very seriously injured, but it is almost certain that one of the small bones of one of his legs was broken.

RETURNS THANKS.—We have received the following for publication:

DEAR SIR:—Being about to leave this city in compliance with the call received by me in the air to fight him, but this only elicited a derisive laugh from the negro, and on he went, dodging in and out of alleys and nearly eluding capture until Key Deffenbaugh appeared upon the scene and headed the fellow off, and soon after captured him in an outside house, in the rear of Governor Mathews' residence, above Tenth street. He was then taken to the lock-up, where he acknowledged that he was John Lewis, a man who was looking for Lewis in the man they were looking for. Lewis is a somewhat prominent in police circles, having broken jail at St. Clairsville some four or five years ago, where he was confined for burglarizing a Bridgeport house. He was also engaged in the robbery of the C. T. V. & W. R. R. some time ago, and was in jail at Cadiz, awaiting trial for another theft. The Bridgeport officers are very indignant over the arrest, one of them alleging that he had been shadowing the negro all day.

CITY COUNCIL.

Special Session Last Night—More Money Was Wanted to Run the City Machinery—Quick Work and a Short Session.

Second Branch.

Council met last night in special session, President Logan in the chair. The following members answered to their names: Alfred Caldwell, Goodfellow, Hamilton, Handlan, Horkheimer, Houston, Kimbrey, Meyers, Naylor, Pollock, Simpson, Vockler and President Logan.

The reading of the minutes of the previous meeting were, on motion, dispensed with.

The following communication from Acting Mayor Logan was read and ordered filed:

To the Honorable Council of the City of Wheeling:

Since the last meeting of Council my attention has been directed to the fact that under an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance to provide for the issue and sale of bonds by the city of Wheeling, and for the redemption and payment thereof," passed on the 15th day of August, 1880, the sum of $3,330, for the purpose of paying the interest coupons which are due Sept. 1, 1880, on the said loan.

The receiver informs me that there are no funds in the City Treasury available for that purpose, and as no regular meeting of Council would be held in time to make any provision for the deficiency, it became necessary that a special meeting should be called for that purpose.

T. H. LOGAN, Acting Mayor.

Alfred Caldwell thereupon offered the following, to cover not only what was contemplated by Dr. Logan's communication, but all other floating indebtedness, which was adopted.

WHEREAS, The revenues of the city for the current fiscal year have been exhausted by the current and extraordinary expenses of the city corporation, and as it is necessary that the Finance Committee be instructed to ascertain the probable sum of such deficiencies for the current fiscal year, and report an ordinance providing for a loan, by which the same may be covered, and for submitting the same to a vote of the citizens.

Several committees then made reports, among which was one from the Fire Department, containing the bill for the new hose, amounting to over $2,000, which was ordered.

Several resolutions of an uninteresting nature also were passed, when this Branch adjourned.

First Branch.

No quorum appearing, there was no session of this branch.

RIVER RIPPLES.

Accident to the Welcome—Arrivals and Departures—And Other Matters of Interest.

River last night 3 feet 6 inches.

The large concern which we clipped an item from the Steubenville Herald yesterday, did not belong to Capt. Hornbrook, as alleged, nor was it broken in two, as stated in the item referred to. Capt. Hornbrook is raising it for the owners.

The steamer Mallie Ragan took quite a load of excursionists to Moundsville yesterday. Capt. Asa Booth did all in his power to make everything pleasant for the passengers, and everybody knows that the Captain can do that to perfection.—Belleaire Independent.

Yesterday, as the Welcome was coming over the falls at canal, the other bar broke, and the boat was stuck on the rocks, and a big hole was stove in her starboard side, about the water line. The best shift possible was made until the boat could steam up to the dry docks, which she immediately made for. She got on about seven o'clock, ready for the repairs necessary to be commenced.

The Chancellor got away as usual yesterday, with a comfortable cargo.

The Ragon is to-day's Parkersburg packet. "De Ragon" ran a bully boat O-b-o.

MOONSHIRE.

The Camp Meeting—Bishop Peck the Leading Spirit There Now.

Correspondence of the Intelligencer.

MOONSHIRE, August 17, 1880.

The arrival of Bishop Peck on yesterday, and the announcement that he would preach at ten o'clock to-day, had the desired effect to bring out a large crowd this morning. Dr. Thornburn is a great power in the sacred dock, Dr. Madden is a finished orator, but Bishop Peck is the grandest Roman of them all. This morning he delivered an appeal to the unconverted which simply held the great audience perfectly spell bound, while at the close of the afternoon service he gave a most touching exhortation. During the exhortation he referred to his sainted mother, saying that she was the mother of five Methodist ministers, and the grandmother of fifteen. The Bishop is a very large man, of commanding presence, and when he rises to speak it is the signal for the most profound attention and perfect silence. It is referred to his sainted mother, saying that she was the mother of five Methodist ministers, and the grandmother of fifteen.
